

Green the Scene – Clean, Reduce, Reuse, Recycle

Join the College of Education faculty, staff and students on April 11-16 for the first-ever Green the Scene initiative.

Brown Bag Lunches

Learn personal and professional information about green living.

Open to campus and community.

 Monday, April 11, Noon, Schindler Education rotunda
“Ergonomics and Proper Lifting” presented by Wendel Reece,
UNI environmental health and safety

 Tuesday, April 12, Noon, Schindler Education rotunda “Fire Safety” presented by Jason Kayser, environmental health and safety

 Wednesday, April 13, Noon, Schindler Education rotunda
“Green Cleaning” presented by Jack Geary, facilities planning

 Thursday, April 14, Noon, WRC 252
“Energy Conservation” presented by Kelly Stark, facilities planning, and Eric O’Brien, sustainability

*Apple Cart in SEC to feature healthy alternative meals and snacks all week.

Super Saturday, April 16

SEC Spring Cleaning—offices, storage rooms and public spaces. Green clean, recycle and organize.

Noon potluck in SEC rotunda for all SEC faculty, staff and students participating in Super Saturday.

Green the Scene – Clean, Reduce, Reuse, Recycle

For more information, contact Mary Herring, interim associate dean of COE at 3-2719 or Jill Uhlenberg, interim department head of Curriculum & Instruction, 3-7671